About ALA

ALA

The American Library Association (ALA) works for library support staff by advocating for your concerns—library funding, access to job banks, new professional resources, and development for all library workers. ALA members include library workers in all types of libraries, from public, academic, school and corporate.

Membership in ALA will ensure that you have access and resources you need to pursue your career with a voice in the ongoing growth and development of the profession.

Library Support Staff Round Table

This joint membership also includes membership in ALA's Library Support Staff Interests Round Table (LSSIRT).

LSSIRT provides an arena within ALA for addressing a wide variety of issues of concern to library support staff, including but not limited to basic training programs, education, career development, job duties and responsibilities and other related issues for the purpose of fostering communication and networking among all levels of library personnel.
